

Below is our plan for 8th grade:

- Office hours will be from 9am-noon
- Forms of communication: Remind, Edmodo, and school email

- Online programs we will be using: 1) Weekly IReady Lessons (we will have students follow the current path they are on, and will not add lessons to make sure they are doing the lessons compatible to their grade level (based on the mid-year assessment). 2) CommonLit for weekly articles of the week 3) EdCite for the Gifted students (Article of the Week), FSA Writing Practice test on the fsassessments.org website (Topic: Pen Names). The students will sign in as GUEST. They will send us their essays via email or OneNote.
- Online Textbook: HMH Collections through their portal. Stories to read and answer text-based questions:
 - Narrative of the Life of Fredrick Douglass, an American Slave
 - The Drummer Boy of Shiloh
 - The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (depending on how much time we will be out for)